

Villa Timily

3 Bedroom Villa with Private Pool

POLIS TOWN, PAPHOS, CYPRUS

- Sleeps 2 - 6
- Free air conditioning
- Accessible & wheelchair friendly
- Walk to Polis beach & uphill to Polis town
- Walking distance to tavernas/bars
- Pool hoist, optional ramps and shower chair

Accessible modern villa with large pool and optional pool hoist, exclusive location close to the beach. Walk to local bars and restaurants within Polis itself. Car hire not essential. Free air conditioning

Car hire is not essential at Villa Timily, which has been designed carefully to offer level access all around the property, making it suitable for all our clients, including elderly or frail, wheelchair users and toddlers.

This modern fully wheelchair accessible bungalow is situated in a quiet cul de sac amongst a cluster of exclusive villas, near the sandy beach and on the edge of Polis town itself. A leisurely evening stroll uphill into the traditional town of Polis offers a wealth of Cypriot tavernas, restaurants, shops and bars.

The house is spacious and on one level, fully air conditioned and has been finished to a high standard using local stone, quality ceramic tiles, granite and wood. Air conditioning is included in the rates and there are 4 units, 3 bedrooms and lounge diner. As this is both cold and hot air, we rent Villa Timily in the cooler months. Having fly screens throughout is always a benefit as you can allow the fresh air in without insects.

The large private pool and rear garden, which overlooks fields and is fenced for privacy, enjoy all day sunshine. We have lemon and orange trees which provide more privacy and bear fruit whilst flowering, thus filling the air with scent from the flowers. There is an herb garden and built in BBQ for you to use too.

We have a new pool hoist on request. The shower chair and ramp are stored safely away, and will be supplied on request, all 3 items at no extra charge. The ramp is ideal if you have toddlers or people with limited mobility too!

The sandy beach with decking and cafe is approx. 10 - 15 mins walk and there is a regular bus service from Polis to Paphos and Coral Bay. Latchi harbour with its fish restaurants and sandy beach is 7 minutes' drive, or we highly recommend the short cut on the promenade from Polis Camping beach, next to the sea, all the way to Latchi. You will pass the La Plage beach with children's play area and a Sea-Trac chair in Summer. This promenade is lovely for a sunset walk and you can walk your dinner off on the return.

The Baths of Aphrodite and start of the Akamas National Park with its crystal clear blue lagoon and variety of walking trails is further along.

Despite being a town, Polis has retained the relaxed feel of a village, with an interesting mix of old and new, and has a wide variety of shops and restaurants.

The location of this comfortable villa is quiet and private yet not isolated, and ideal for couples and families. I have been renting this villa for many years and this property has been suitable and appreciated many disabled people, who have been kind enough to give descriptive reviews, which are on my website.

Many bookings taken are not for disabled people, all are very welcome. It's a great location and you get a break from driving.

LOCAL AREA

On the way in to Polis town, which is uphill from Villa Timily, Elena's is the closest bar (approx. 10 minutes' stroll), and is a lovely spot for a pre-dinner drink whilst watching the sun set over Villa Timily. Then a little further up the lane you come to Karouzis taverna where they serve a good meze and seafood.

The Church of Agios Andronikos is located near the Square and is adorned with wall paintings dating from the 16th Century. The Archaeological Museum contains exhibits of artefacts from the Ancient Marion and Byzantine history of Cyprus. Polis even boasts active archaeological sites.

Despite being a town, Polis (1500m to the Square) has retained the relaxed feel of a village, and there are many locals as well as tourists. To give you an idea of its size, you could walk through most of Polis in 15 minutes. It offers an interesting mix of old and new, and a wide variety of shops including Papantoniou supermarket, restaurants (including clients' favourites Arsinoe Fish Tavern, lively Moustakallis Tavern and serene In Town Restaurant) and ATM machines. You can find lots of easy parking and it is also a lovely place for a wander and shopping in the pedestrianised area.

Twilight is one of my favourite times here around the Square, with the changing colours of the old stone buildings housing the Cafes and restaurants. Waiters are busy dressing the outside tables, lighting tea lights, plumping up the cushions, offering happy hour drinks etc. A wonderful spot to enjoy the slow Cypriot pace of life, sit back and people watch.

The Polis Camping sandy beach is easily recognised by the tall eucalyptus forest which backs it and provides welcome shade. There is decking here, a cafe and WCs. The coastal views are lovely from here and this is the start of the beach promenade to Latchi, which offers a municipal beach (La Plage), Sea-Trac chair in Summer, children's playground. In the harbour you will find water sport facilities where small boats can be hired with a cool box. There are also trips offering fishing or deep-sea diving. A short cruise to Akamas departs from Latchi to the beautiful clear turquoise waters of the Blue Lagoon.

The Akamas National Park is nearby past Latchi, and offers beautiful countryside and uncrowded beaches, all protected from development. Chrysochou Bay is mainly undeveloped and offers mile after mile of quiet beaches alongside citrus groves or next to fields, with beautiful coastal views and a dramatic backdrop of hills.

More and more taverns and bars are wheelchair accessible now. Also many beaches have decking, which is great for all of us with children, pushchairs etc. Please look at my "Guests with Disabilities" page under the toolbar title "Booking With Us".

I will send you lots more information on Cyprus before you go.
