Villa Vineyard Breeze is quietly situated away from main and busy roads in a quiet lane, 5 minutes' walk to the centre of traditional Kathikas village, famous for its wines and tavernas! All 4 bedrooms have their own bath/shower room in this beautiful villa with secluded private swimming pool equipped with Roman steps. As Villa Vineyard Breeze is at the far end it benefits from a lovely uninterrupted sea view across the fields.

As well as a fully equipped kitchen, Villa Vineyard Breeze has a handy kitchenette with fridge upstairs, which is extremely convenient for an early morning cup of tea etc. The pool terrace with its new pergola and table, is a lovely spot for al fresco meals, starting with breakfast, where you can enjoy the welcome morning sunshine. The Troodos Mountains views across open uninterrupted vineyards are absolutely mesmerising and you can even see the "golf ball" at Platres.

Villa Vineyard Breeze is the far end villa of 3, (no immediate neighbours) and the pool and poolside are not overlooked even though our Villa Vineyard View is behind. This is because the pools have been placed with privacy in mind, at different sides of the villas, and each poolside is enclosed with fencing and hedging. You are able to sunbathe and swim without anyone seeing you and also enjoy the beautiful vineyards and mountains.

LOCAL AREA

One of the first things you notice here is how quiet it is. And the views! Whatever direction you drive in, there are far reaching stunning views of natural beauty, including from the villa. Kathikas is situated approx. halfway between historic Paphos with its daily market, interesting shops and beaches, and Polis, with its miles of undeveloped sand and pebble coastline.

Blue flag beaches Coral Bay and Corallia are easily accessed at 10km via Kathikas shortcut road E709.

Latchi is also reached via the shortcut road E709, where, if you can drag yourself away from the excellent local tavernas which all receive great reviews on Trip Advisor, you can sample the freshest fish next to the sea. Hidden beaches and coves can be found between Latchi and Baths of Aphrodite

Kathikas taverns are full of charm as they have been restored from old houses, and include To Stekki tou Panai run by our friend Maria, Yiannis Tavern with live music and dancing and Imogen's Inn. Worth finding too is off the beaten track Miliou village, down past Akourdaleia, where you can find Petroula Christodoulou tavern, name looks like "KaGevelov" and Pangratos tavern, both popular with walkers. (Many of our Coral Bay clients drive up to Kathikas for the tavernas!)

There is a lot to do locally, including a nature walking trail from the village, Baths of Adonis is just 5km, via Akoursos, and the beautiful Avakas gorge is just 4km. With fantastic views everywhere, this area is great for rambling or driving. We have 2 pairs of hiking sticks on request.

Please note Akourdaleia above has a lovely herb garden which is worth a visit and look out for the Herb Garden Farmer's Market where local growers, brewers and bakers have an opportunity to sell their quality, natural, local and homemade goods to the public.

Kathikas forms part of the Laona Project, which aims to restore old properties using traditional methods, and it is a pleasure to view these beautiful restorations locally. Kathikas village offers the perfect environment for grape growing (clean air, lots of sunshine and no humidity) and our clients really appreciate this air too, especially when returning from the coast, where humidity can be high. The island's best wine is produced here and this contributes to the thriving village community, and the local Sterna Winery (1km) offers Free Wine tasting. Kolios and Vouni wineries further afield also offer pre bookable food and we recommend a visit.

Between 10th and 17th of August they have the annual Village Festival and at Easter time there are traditional activities in the village.

I will send you lots more information on Cyprus before you go.
